In our prayers:

We are thankful this week that we can witness and take part in the baptism of Isla Hogeveen. It is such a blessing!

The world is a mess, there is so much violence, discontent and unhappiness around us. Give thanks that we live in a peaceful country and pray for our leaders and our fellow Canadians, that we may continue to be free from war and be able to worship our God openly.

Pray for peace in this world, pray for the people of the Ukraine.

Continue to pray for Julie and Brian as they go through this difficult time. They covet our prayers and support.

Pray for peace and courage and for God to lead them on the right path of His choosing for treatment.

Pray for Jesse and Jenn and their children, and give thanks for their testimony.

This week especially remember those who suffer mental illness. Pray for Noah Miedema as he is currently in the hospital. Pray for strength for Davis and Trudy as they deal with the difficulties of having a child with serious mental health issues.

We pray that all those who are travelling, on vacations, may be blessed with safe travels and a time of relaxation and rejuvenation.

Give thanks that we have pastors each week to lead our worship services, and that we have volunteers to fill the positions that need people.

As always give thanks for the love of our Heavenly Father, the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the gift of Jesus and His love for us.

Jesse and Jenn Strobosser have a blog to keep everyone updated on what is happening with Jesse. Here is a link to the blogs as they are posted: JesseJenn blog

From Indwell:

Over the past year, a number of churches have asked for occasional video updates that they could share. We hope you will enjoy this short update from Debra Vandermeer, Indwell Program Launch Supervisor in Simcoe. You'll see some pictures of the new Dogwood Suites building as well!

SoCo Weekly Update

We had an amazing weekend filled with many SoCo events: SoCo Sup, SoCo Sunday Service and SoCo Summer Camping Retreat. And God blessed us with amazing weather! Due to the holiday Monday, our weekly newsletter is delayed...so look for it next week to get the update on this past weekend (or check it out on Facebook - South Coast Beach Project). Please keep the participants in your prayers as we are entering our last two weeks of the project.

Highlights from our Council meeting, held on Tues, Aug 2, 2022:

Davis opened the meeting with a reading from Revelations 8:1-6 and a devotional titled "When prayer shakes the earth."

Jake opened with prayer.

The minutes of our June meeting were approved.

The worship committee is doing a great job, but are finding it difficult to fill our musical needs.

The letter received from Ryan Hoogerbrugge was reviewed.

Pulpit supply was updated, several Sundays are still open but most are filled. Thank you Davis for the work you do.

We will incorporate Thanksgiving into our Thanksgiving Sunday service, there will not be a separate service.

As Christmas falls on a Sunday this year we will not have a Christmas Eve service but instead celebrate Christmas on Christmas day. (If other plans are made, the membership will be notified)

The calling committee is busy making contact with several pastors. Updates will be sent out as they become available.

The Board of Directors will meet in Sept.

Teen Challenge will be visiting HCCRC on Dec 4.

An invitation from Jarvis CRC was received for New Year's Eve. Details to follow

Due to conflicting schedules our next executive meeting will take place on Sept 13th and our next council meeting will take place on Sept 20th

Mike Fennema (Laos) will be visiting HCCRC on Sept 11 and give a short presentation about his work in Laos.

Isla Adeline Hogeveen (daughter of Trevor and Laura) will be baptized Sunday, Aug 7, 2022, Lord Willing.

A discussion was held in regards to creating a new vision for HCCRC in order to give us vision and excitement moving forward in the community of Hagersville.
Mark closed the meeting with prayer.
