In our prayers:

We are thankful this week to meet and spend time with Pastor Steven Eckersley and his wife, and hear a message from him.

In our prayers this week pray for peace in our world, especially in the Ukraine. Pray for those in the world who are oppressed, especially Christians in other parts of the world.

In our community pray for those who struggle with homelessness and poverty.

In our church family pray for those who suffer chronic pain, depression and mental illness. Pray for those who are mourning and those who struggle with serious health issues. We think of Trixie, Helen, Reta, Julia and the Strobosser family.

As we move forward into this week pray for safety for those who are travelling, comfort for those who are mourning, healing for those who are ill and peace for those who are struggling.
