In our prayers:

School is back in session, both for those attending class in person and those how learn by homeschooling. We pray for safety in the classrooms and as the students travel back and forth from home to school.

This week we again share in the sorrow of the Hogeveen and Strobosser families with the passing of Lenore. We pray that the families may feel the love and comfort of the Lord during this time of mourning. May we also surround them with love and support.

The crops and fields and gardens are being harvested and we give thanks for the bounty of the earth. We are blessed.

Continuously pray for those among us who suffer illness, we think of Brian and Julie as they live with the effects of Julie's cancer. We think of Jake Elgersma, as he awaits surgery on the 13th. We pray for successful surgery and a quick recovery for him.

There are many who struggle with continuous health issues, both mental and physical. Pray for Trixie, Helen, Reta, Noah and any others that we may know of.

Pray for Jesse and Jenn and the Strobosser family as they enter the life of Chemo treatments. Pray that the Chemo may be successful.

We thank God that even as we go through the valleys in our lives, we know that God is with us, that Jesus loves us and surrounds, and the Spirit guides our walk through this life.

We are thankful that Mike Fennema may be with us this week to share his experiences in Laos. We give thanks for all those who are involved in making our worship services possible, as well as those who lead our church.

Let us remember always to thank God for the gift of His Son, Jesus, and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer Time is starting again! There will be a time of prayer taking place at the home of Jake and Martha Elgersma this Sunday evening at 7:00. Please contact Davis or Jake if you will be attending.

Jesse and Jenn Strobosser have a blog to keep everyone updated on what is happening with Jesse. Here is a link to the blogs as they are posted: JesseJenn blog

The TRIP TEAM is going to be in full swing again starting this Thursday Sept 8, 9-10:30 am and run every other week. Please send your order to trip@jdcs.ca. or come into the school and pick out your gift cards. We have a great variety of cards from Gas-Groceries-Dining-Sport and many more. If you don't have an order form, just email us and we will send one your way. Your order can be picked up the same day, or anytime after at the school office. It's a great fundraiser for the school and we hope we can count on your continued support!

Please check your weekly bulletin for our TRIP dates.

TRIP DATES:

SEPT 8 - TRIP	OCT 6 - TRIP	NOV 17 - TRIP	DEC 1 - TRIP
SEPT 22 - TRIP	OCT 20 - TRIP		DEC 8 - TRIP
			DEC 15 - TRIP

T Shirts to support Jesse and Jenn

The tee shirts have been designed with a custom logo featuring "let there be light" on it. The shirts are black.

Each shirt is being sold for $20 and any proceeds will be given to Jesse and Jenn.

There are sizes S-XXL (limited sizes of all as we only ordered 100 shirts in total)

Please contact Kaite Strobosser at ikstrobosser@gmail.com if you would like to order any.

Dear Hagersville Community CRC

Thank you so much for your financial support of Christian Reformed Disability Concerns. Because of you, we have been able to recruit and support church and regional disability advocates throughout the Christian Reformed Church in North America and provide educational resources such as webinar series, books studies, and the Breaking Barriers newsletter. Your donations make all of this possible. We are so grateful you have joined us in the vision that in Christian Reformed Churches everybody belongs and everybody serves.
